They Find Fame Abroad.

The following is an extract from the Manitoba Free Press (Winnipeg), and is sent us by Mr Herbert Oope, Oarborry, Maniwhat formerly resident in Hongkong :-

Winnipeg saw more of the Orient on Saturday and Sunday than for some time. From 6.20 until 11 o'clock last night the Coronation contingent from Hongkong were in the city and attracted more attention than a big circus. Small Chinese soldlers with their expressionless faces and picturesque headgear; towering Sikhe with the awarthy tan from an Indian sun; Chiness engineers in their loose blue clothes, and the collection of English and foreign white soldiers that form the jury chosen from the Hougkong volunteers could have been seen in many parts of the city objects of the greatest curiosity, and themselves very interested in what is to them something of a queer town.

The contingent is composed in all of 84 soldiers, volunteers or regulars. There are 42 Hongkong volunteers, the infantry corps under the British flag there, which corresponds to the militia in Canada. These are ponds to the militia in Canada. These are all white men, though many have wandered to China from various parts of the earth, and are not, strictly speaking, Englishmen. They are known as colonials. The largest proportion of them are born of English parents in China. The Hongkong garrison. Royal Artillery party numbered six mon. They are also English speaking. The Chinese and Punjab Mahommedan soldiers attracted the greatest attention. The Hongkong regiment men numbered 15, under Subardar Major Sirdar Khan, C. O. I. the 1st Chinese regiment, composed of native Chinamon, were represented by 13 men, and the Hongkong Engineers, also Chinamen. by six men.

THE COMMANDING OFFICER.

Major Chapman, a splendid type of a British soldier, is in command of the contingent. He has lived in China for the past thirty years and speaks the language well. He is of the Hongkong volunteers and his assistant is Liout. Acustrong also of the colunteers. Capt. James is in command of the First Chinese regiment and was in active service during the time of the Boxer rising and the siege of Tientsin.

Owing to the fact that very few knew of the exact hours at which the military special would arrive, the crowd at the depot when the train pulled in was not large, but it grow rapidly soon after the mon were detrained and parties began to wander up Main street. The train has been running as a special and on fast time with long stops to allow the men a chance to stretch themselves and keep in good lighting frim as they are going on a journey for show. The train has been made large enough to give ample room and avoid crowding, and the men speak in the highest terms of the excellent care that has been taken that their comfort is looked after. Starting from an inspection of the train tsalf there is nothing about the visit of this continuent that is not interesting. From the rear of the train hangs the two flags. that of China and the Union Jack. The Chinese flag is the property of the Hong-kong Volunteers. The British cost of arms is seen across the face of it and the motto 'Nulli Secunda in Oriente,' inscribcd below. Fach car of the train denotes the charactor of the occupants as in what language they speak. The Chipamen have hung around wavy, fancy articles of Chinese manufacture, such has silk handkerchiefs, swords made of Chinese money, fans and pipes. The cars occupied by the white men were entirely different. The car used by the Sikhe was peculiar for its neatness. with the exception of a large patire gipe here was nothing odd about it All eventhe mon, though sometimes inconvenienced Nos. 7, 14 11 and 13, SEYMOUR by the crowds, wore extremely good metur-

Sub-Major Sustan Khan, Khan Bahadar, O.I.E., is the most interesting. He is the tallest man or them all, which is saying a mod deal, no there is not one under aix foct. illocarries hunself with the soldierly, dignified bearing for which the native Indian officers are noted. His stendy, dark piercing cyes, jet black closecut glossy beard and tawny face reminded

A woman that is well, in perfect health is a rarity. The majority of women have some alment some disorder of which to complain. They are weak, 'all-tired-out. broken down, the roses have vanished from their cheeks, the smile from face, the cheerfulness from the voice. They are peaked, pale and juny. The ruby lips are purplish or blauched, the sparkling eye is dimmed and the bewitching charms of youth are faded. This all due to ill-health. Why women should be so unhealthful, space-will not permit of discussion here. But it is a fact. Their systems are debilit-ated. all-run-down and need toning up.

The stimulating effects of a tonic and tissue builder are required. Stearns Wine of Cod Liver Oil alls the bill and will produce marcellous results in many cases. Steams Wine restores health and vivacity, builds up the system with new and healthy tiesues and hanishes the raging, indescribable poins. A WHOLE FAMILY KILLED.

Murderer at Large. Reward $5,000.00.

Description of the Murderer:

Dark hair, clean shaven; height, 5 feet 11 inches; age, about 32; walks with a slight limp. When last seen was wearing a bowler hat and dark-grey suit.

The above reward will be paid

To anyone who gives information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the murderer.

Story of the Crime:

Whereas, on or about Wednesday last, the said murderer did, with malice aforethought, lay down a quantity of Newton's Rat-Cheese, with the result that he poisoned a whole family of Rats. This is not his only crime, for he has been the cause of hundreds of other deaths through the same means.

This reward will be paid

By the Rat-Cheese Association on the day the murderer is sentenced.

THE JUNE SETTLEMENT.

An Incident at Shanghai. At Shanghai, on the 6th inst., Mr J. C. E. Douglas, Polico Magistrate, heard evidence in a charge of unlawful assault brought against Mr L. C. B. Edmonston by Mr J. Hunt. The following details are summarised from the report in the N.-C. Daily

Mr A. P. Stokes appeared for the complainant, and Mr F. Ellis for the defendant. Mr Ellis said that on behalf of his client he was prepared to admit the charge of assault, which, he submitted, had sufficient cause for its commital. Mr Stokes said that before going into the is the first personal tribute Lord Roberts merits of this case, he desired to ask permission to amend the summons by adding the name of Mr Van Nierop to that of Mr ont a separate summons. His Worship said that he could not permis such a step, as the charge was a criminal with that of Mr Edmonston without taking

one. A separate summons must be taken out against Mr Van Nierop, and three days notice given to him. In addressing the Court, Mr Stokes said that the charge against the defendant was one of assault. He was sorry to say that it was not an assault the circumstances of which allowed him to treat it in a light manner. He wished first of all to relate how the parties to the summons came to most in the office of Mossra. Benjamin, Kelly and Potts, on the first day of July last at 11,40 in the morning. That morning Mr Hunt received a letter from Mesars, Benjamin, Kelly and Potts, signed by Mr Van Nierop, requesting him to deliver 500 shares of a company—the Kalping Mining Company, as a matter of fact-and in response to that request the complainant went to the office whore Mr Van Nierop was employed. He saw Mr Van Nierop there and told him that it being a holiday it would be difficult for him to deliver these shares before the recommencement of business in a day or two. Open entering the office, he found Mr. Van Nierop standing before as desk near a French window. It was through that window that the complainant entered the office from the verandals. The premises were situated in Foochow Road During the conversation about the delivery of the shares, Mr Van Nierop's manner was not conciliatory, but no angry words passed between him and the complainant The defendant was sitting at the far end of the room at one desk, and near him at another desk was Mr Clark. It was necessary for the defendant to walk eight or ten stops before reaching the complainant where he stood. While the complainant was speaking to Mr Van Nierop, he was astonished to hear the defendant break out into abusive language, directed towards himself. M. Delcassé, expressed his satisfaction at From abusing him the defendant proceeded to threaten him with personal violence, and called him 'scoundrel' and other names. The complainant at last became exasperated and said to the defendant, 'If you call me effect. As soon as he said that the defendant said that no man should dare to fists assaul ed the somplainant and struck him. The complainant returned the than a year with an affection of the heart. he found that symptoms of breathwhere he fell with great violence on his dering one of his arms useless for a day or two. Mr Van Nierop interfered afterwards, and told the complainant to leave the office. Op to then, there had been no attempt on the part of Mr Van Nierop, who signed for his firm and took charge of the office to exercise that control over the defendant, who was a clerk under him, that he should have exercised in the interests of ordinary office decount. It seemed a most extraordinary thing for a man to be practically invited to come to au office and then be treated in such a way. If the defendant had a grievance against the completizant: a man who was old enough to be his father, ans office was certainly not the proppe place to discuss it in. With regard to what led up to this a-soult it appeared, from the abase of the defindant, that it started in some ousiness transactions which to have an illumination of the city of the complainted with a Chinaman, who did a large business in theres. During the interview between the complain. ant and the Chinaman, Mr Rad was present. and was prepared, if it was relevantatuil to the issue of the case, to come forward and Evidence was then given by Mr H. H. Read and Mr H. J. Clark. L. C. B. Edmonstoir, the defendant, said that on the 30th June, he went to the office of the Russian Bank compradore, where he saw Mr Hong, who was a very large constituent in the business of his firm. There were also present Mr Hunt, Mr Read, and Mr Solomon. An exchange of shares was taking place between Mr Hong and Mr Hunt. He saw Mr Hunt snatch the shares, and heard him shout angrily, 'I saw you] change the shares. How dare you.' Hunt then counted the shares and found shem all right. Afterwards witness asked Mr Hong what all the row was about. Hong said that Mr Hunt had been bothering him all day and called him a cheat. On the next day, Mr Hunt came round to the utice regarding the letter sent him by Mr Van Nierop. The attitude of Mr Van Nierop was gentlemanly and busine-slike. When he thought the two had finished talking, he told Mr Hunt what he thought of his conduct to the Chinaman the day before, saying that if he treated a white men like that would have been kicked out of the office, and called him a "d-scounstrel." INSPECTION OF RIVER STEAMERS.

The following discussion took place at the Sanitary Board meeting yesterday with reference to the question of the medical inspection of river steamers, referred to in our issue of last night, viz :-

Dr Atkinson-The question is whether this is to apply to all steamers coming from Canton or only to the vessels of the Hongkong, Canton and Macao Steamboat Co. In the minute of the Board it is stated that yessels should be encouraged to carry which he showed to Dr Marsh, asking him qualified medical doctors. I think it is quite impracticable for the smaller steamers to carry doctors. Mr E. Osborne -- They could be super-Dr Atkinson-Yes, but I think that the Board meant this to apply only to cargo essels.
